Headline:
Rain turning to heavy showers by afternoon. Sunshine developing.

Today:
A cloudy start with most parts seeing outbreaks of rain, perhaps heavy and rather thundery. Cloud breaking to allow some brightness through the morning with rain turning to showers. These heavy with thunder in places. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers may continue across some areas well into the evening before probably turning isolated after midnight with clear spells developing. Dry later with light winds. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tuesday:
After a bright start Tuesday will start fine with sunshine. Cloud building by the afternoon with a chance of an isolated shower. Thicker cloud may affect Channel coasts. Light winds. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday will be dry, with sunshine and light winds. Thursday bright with some sunny spells. Showers possible later. Friday rather more breezy with sunshine and probably remaining dry.
